PTA Membership Goal for '26-'27 school year is 200 members!

During the PTA Membership Drive students & classes will challenge each other in inviting new members to join PTA. A reward will be given to the individual student as well as the class who earned the most members during the week.

Anyone can join PTA:

Parents, Students, Grandparents, Neighbors,
and/or Community Members.

Membership Fee is $17 and requires annual renewal

Scan to become a member

This gathering is a brief opportunity to build community with other parents and have casual conversation with Principal Higgins about important school and district topics. PTA provides coffee & pastries.

Hosted in Cafeteria at 8:35-9:30 on the designated Wednesdays

Student of the Month
BREAKFAST with Principal Higgins

DB PTA hosts a monthly breakfast for our students who have earned an award for the designated character trait that month. The students of the month will enjoy a special time with Principal Higgins during the breakfast, receive an award, and take a photo.

Parents are welcome to observe the special breakfast hosted in the Cafeteria and take a photo of their child when they receive their award.

Breakfast is held at 8:35-9:15 on the designated Friday of that month

Want to get involved?

There are several ways you can be involved as a parent volunteer! Choose the option that works best for your schedule, family, and interest.

Become a PTA Member

Your PTA Membership contributes to the PTA budget for this year. As a member you also have voting rights and privileges in the association.

Participate in Fundraisers and Events!

Your participation in school fundraisers and events contributes to the school community while also supporting your student's experience.

From home or After School Hours

There are many opportunities to assist with the planning and preparation of our events and programs behind-the-scenes. Use your time and talents to contribute to our school community at the convenience of your schedule!

Become a District Cleared Volunteer

Any volunteer role on campus during school hours requires District Clearance.

Open Enrollment for District Clearance happens once in Fall and Spring.

Fall Enrollment (7/29-9/29) & Spring Enrollment (2/1-3/17)
